

The University of Georgia

The Delta Prize for Global Understanding

Nomination Form

The Delta Prize for Global Understanding is awarded to individuals who by their own initiative have provided opportunities for greater understanding among cultures and nations. The Prize recognizes contributions to peace and cooperation, such as grassroots projects that diminish hostilities in a particular region of the world, international programs that improve relations among different peoples, and leadership in the solution of global or regional conflict. Since its creation in 1999, the Prize has been awarded to President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, President Mikhail Gorbachev, Mrs. Sadako Ogata, President Václav Havel, Ambassador Gertrude Mongella, Mr. Ted Turner, President Nelson Mandela and President Martti Ahtisaari.

Nominations for the Delta Prize should be submitted to:

Delta Prize for Global Understanding
The University of Georgia
164 Psychology Building
Athens, GA 30602-3001 USA

phone: 706-542-3966
fax: 706-542-2828
email: prize@uga.edu
<http://www.uga.edu/news/deltaprize/>

The Delta Prize for Global Understanding has been organized by the directors of the Willson Center for Humanities and Arts and the Center for International Trade and Security at the University of Georgia.

Nominee (Name and Title): _____

Contact Information (If known): _____

Nominator (Name and Title): _____

Address: _____

Phone _____

Fax: _____

Email: _____

If you wish, you may attach a letter or include additional supporting information about your nominee. Information cannot be returned. Submit this completed nomination form with your attachments to the above address.

Nominator's signature: _____

Date: _____