

The University of Georgia Willson Center for Humanities and Arts 2009-2010 (Academic Year) Junior Research Fellowship

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 22, 2009

Submit original plus 8 copies of the application. Attach 9 copies of your CV.

The humanities encompass philosophical, historical, social, ethical, legal, aesthetic, religious, and ideological investigations of our world. Humanistic research includes many kinds of scholarship, such as history, criticism, theory, interpretation, and translation. The arts may be understood as the expression of human experience in various modes, such as literature, theatre, music, dance, film, painting, printmaking, sculpture, and design.

Applicant: _____

Department: _____ Telephone: _____

Email: _____ Fax Number: _____

Title of Proposed Research Project: _____

Attach 500-Word Description of Project.

25-Word Summary of Project:

I have _____ have not _____ applied for external support for this project. If yes, list funding agencies/amounts. Preference may be given to projects for which external funding has been solicited.

Applicant's Signature/Date

Department Head's Signature/Date

Willson Center Research Fellowships are awarded primarily to University of Georgia tenured or tenure-track faculty. Exceptions may be made only for other members of the UGA community who are budgeted for research. Willson Center Research Fellowships may be awarded to individuals only once every five years. The Research Fellowship is a monetary transfer to the recipient's department. Departments use these funds to hire instructors to teach two of a recipient's normally assigned courses during the academic year. This release time allows the recipient to focus on his/her proposed research project. The recipient of this grant does not receive a salary supplement.